

VERMIN-INFESTED ALIENS HELD IN N. Y.

Officials Examine Steerage Passengers on Three Liners for Typhus Suspects

LOOK FOR BUBONIC PLAGUE

By the Associated Press
New York, Feb. 23.—Four hundred immigrants who arrived at Grand Central Station early today from Boston, where they landed yesterday from the steamship Rotterdam, were examined for possible typhus infection. Typhus, found to be vermin infested of them, the Aquitania, from which 145 of 2957 passengers were removed to Hoffman Island for observation; the Ponce, with fifty-five cabin passengers from San Juan, Porto Rico, and the Calabria, with 780 steerage passengers from Trieste, will be rigidly examined before being permitted to dock.

Eighty-five steerage passengers, who came from Poland and boarded the Aquitania at Southampton, were taken off and fifty-six others, many of them infants, were found to have vermin.
The Calabria was the first ship to arrive from Trieste since the President Wilson and San Giusio brought typhus from that Adriatic port. The Ponce was held because of the appearance of bubonic plague in Porto Rico. She will be searched for rats and possible infections among her passengers today.
Rome, Feb. 23.—(By A. P.)—Vigorous measures are being taken by the Italian Government to prevent the entrance to Italy of infectious diseases, especially typhus fever, Signor Corradini, under secretary of the interior, declared in the Senate.

Car Crashes Through Bumper
A freight car being chunted to a siding at Eighteenth and Ellsworth streets at 11 o'clock today went through the bumper at the end of the siding and stopped with part of its length on the sidewalk. The engine crew "gave" the car too much start and the brakes could not prevent the collision with the building. No one was hurt, and crowds of spectators were attracted by the crash.

THIEVES BREAK 3 WINDOWS

Use Bricks to Get Clothing and Gems Worth $1438
Jewelry, clothing and dresses worth $1438 were obtained after midnight by window smashers, according to reports to the police today.
The window of the jewelry store of Richard Hadley, 4812 Frankford avenue, was smashed with a brick wrapped in cloth, the thief obtaining watches and jewelry to a total value of $948.
At the furnishing store of Morris Rudolph, 1447 Point Breeze avenue, a brick was hurled through the window, and the thief grabbed two dresses worth $40 and escaped.
Police reports indicate there were five men in the gang that collected in front of the tailor shop of D. Beard, 871 North Seventh street. One hurled a newspaper-wrapped brick through the show window, and the five disappeared with eleven bolts of cloth worth $400.

THE February Furniture Sale is nearing its close—only four days more! The price-tickets on the greater part of our stock are stamped 33 1/3 per cent. and on the remainder 50 per cent. That means you deduct just one-third or one-half from the price—and all prices had already been reduced at least 10 per cent. at the end of the year. We should like to be able to promise you that regular prices will be radically lower than last year; but thus far, manufacturers' prices have averaged only about 15 per cent. below 1920 prices, and no further general reduction is expected at this time.

YOU can see very plainly that our February Sale reductions are far greater than any reduction in cost to us, and surely you can see that there is a very great advantage in buying all the Furniture you need before this Sale closes.

OUR warehouse supplies are holding out well. The assortment on the selling floor seems practically as large as at the beginning of the Sale—a splendid selection of Bedroom and Dining-Room Suites in Period styles, a matchless collection of Upholstered Living-Room Suites, and hundreds of Rockers, Chairs, Tables, Couches, Cabinets, Stools, Trays, and other single pieces.

Men Know There Is No Better Clothing Than The Kind We Sell—

And They Should Know That There Are No Better Values to be Had Than These in This Sale

Hundreds of Suits and Overcoats—each of that good, dependable character necessary to gain admittance to our stocks—are marked at clearance prices. Any man—no matter what his taste may dictate—can walk in, select a Suit or Overcoat to meet his particular need, and pay one-third to one-half less than the identical clothing would have cost a few months ago. The broad character of our stock is well known—the opportunity is yours for the taking. Outstanding lots:

Men's Cassimere Suits Less Than Half Former Prices... $18.50

Fine Worsted Suits, in all regular and stout sizes, reduced to half former price—$31.50

Conservative and Youthful Suits With Two Pairs of Trousers... $24.50

Fur-lined Overcoats, half price—$75.00 and $125.00
Men's Separate Trousers—now $2.25, $4.75, $6.75

Usters and Other Overcoats at About Half Former Prices
Usters, Usterettes and Chesterfields—now $18.50, $26.50, $31.50.

Women's Winter Coats at Sweeping Clearance Prices

Hundreds of women are taking advantage of the necessity for stock clearance to buy fine Winter Coats for this year and next at the merest fraction of the height-of-the-season prices:

Fur-trimmed Coats and Dolmans—now $20
Fine Wool Velour Coats, various styles, $25
Coats and Dolmans, some with fur collar, $30.00

These and others at great reductions—chiefly odd lots and broken sizes, but an excellent assortment in all and unusually varied.

Spring Coats, Capes and Dolmans

Three distinctly different kinds of outer garments, and so very many variations of each kind. In the modest price range, from $18.00 to $60.00, you will find many different models, in serges, poplins, wool velours and other high-grade cloths, in all the new spring colorings, also black and navy. And Sports Coats of polo cloths and tan camel's-hair-finish cloth, from $13.50 to $60.00.

Isn't This a Smart Model in New Suits For Large Women?

It is of blue tricotine, modeled in the most slender effect and embroidered in panels to emphasize the long lines—price $87.50, and one of the finest Suits at the price shown in a long time. It is indicative in value and smartness of the many other models in extra sizes, developed in men's-wear serge and tricotine, in black and navy blue. Some belted, some on long, unbelted lines; some embroidered or braid-trimmed, others with smartly slashed seams. Prices $37.50 to $125.00.

Fine Tailored Suits in Regular Sizes, $30 to $47.50

Belted models with smart features in the way of plaits and tucks; some models smartly flaring from the waist-line, others on straight lines, or in semi-fitting effects without belts. Serge and tricotine, and some very good looking tweeds and homespuns, the latter very trimly tailored, or in smart Cape-Suit styles—the very last idea in Tailored Suits.

—And hundreds of others up to our finest Sets of Imported Haviland China—all greatly reduced.
